"Anyone Can Hold The Helm When The Sea Is Calm"

Published by

The Class of 1954, New Bedford Vocational High School

We, the members of the 1954 Mariner Staff, have tried to give to you in the form of our yearbook, a memento of our four wonderful years at Vocational High.

If, each time you glance through this book, pleasant memories are recalled, the Staff will feel well repaid for the time and effort they have spent.

Yearbook Staff

"I think that nothing is of more importance for the public weal, than to form and train up youth in wisdom and virtue. Wise and good men are, in my opinion, the strength of a state far more so than riches or arms."

—Benjamin Franklin.

"What Greater Or Better Gift Can We Offer the Republic Than To Teach and Instruct Our Youth?"

Mr. William R. Mackintosh

The Senior Class greatly appreciates having been guided by our eminent Director, Mr. William R. Mackintosh.

We have been fortunate to be under his conscientious supervision. His time and knowledge have been ours since our Freshman year and will, we hope, be here for others in the years to come.

Our one hundred and six names are just a few on the list of students whose lives he has successfully directed.

Our "Mr. Mack" is a man we shall not forget.

Mr. Grafton B. Fish

The Class of 1954 dedicates its Class Year Book to Mr. Grafton B. Fish, instructor and friend.

It represents our feeling of respect for him as an instructor as well as a man; our admiration for his ability not only as a teacher but as a distinguished Lt. Commander in the United States Navy.

It is a memento of our gratitude and affection for the consideration and help he has given to us, his students and friends.

Our best wishes always to you, Mr. Fish!

Mrs. Glorianna Roderick

We the girls of the Class of 1954 wish to dedicate our Year Book to a person who has been helpful to us in many ways. She has been interested in us, not only as our teacher but as our friend.

By our dedication, Mrs. Roderick, we wish to show to you our gratitude and affection and we hope that the years ahead will bring you great happiness and success.

"In Confidence and Quiet Shall Your Strength Be"

Goodbye and Good Fortune!

This year we must say farewell to two esteemed members of our faculty – Miss Mary Sheerin and Mrs. Clementina Mackenzie.

These teachers have taught their subjects most capably and conscientiously. More important, they have taught their pupils with great understanding.

Friendly and charming, Miss Sheerin – helpful and cheery, Mrs. Mackenzie we shall greatly miss both of you in our school!

We wish for you happiness and health in great abundance! May your future bring you the contentment and pleasure you so richly deserve.

"That best portion of a good woman's life,–
Her little, nameless, unremembered acts
Of kindness and of understanding."

Prophecy

Class Prophecy

It is 1964. The place — LaGuardia Air Field. Over the loudspeaker comes the announcement that the flight for Alaska is ready to take off.

Here comes one of those last minute passengers! Why it's Miss Louann Walker, taking her time as usual.

The stewardess checks her name off the list and they both enter the plane. Oh, excuse me, didn't I tell you? Dolores Paulino, alias "Mousey" is the stewardess. Looks like the Air Force was too much for her.

As the plane proceeds upwards Miss Patricia Lopes, now a model for the Powers Modeling Agency beckons for her smelling salts. Her Nurse, Shirley Fabio, took her nurse's training in Connecticut. I wonder why?

Suddenly a commotion is heard at the front part of the plane. We see Mrs. James Sheppard is trying to round up her three sets of twins. The twins are annoying the one and only Shirley Medeiros. This girl, ladies and gentlemen, can sleep anywhere, anytime, any place. She's probably dreaming of the $1.50 still owed to her by Joe Correia. What a happy worm!

As the plane comes in for a landing at Juneau, Ernie Benoit, now a pilot for Trans-World Airways warns all passengers to fasten their safety belts. Take it easy on those landings, Ernie!

What's this? Why His Excellency, Ronald Alves, the Governor of Alaska is here with his officials, Nick Konstantages, Kenny Tripp and Freddie Manchester to greet us.

Coming after Ronnie is the President of the Cornell Dubilier, Gus Cormier. I guess he turned in his sprayer before he left for his Alaskan Vacation.

We find too, that Nicole Trommenschlager, now an important French Diplomat, is also vacationing in Juneau. She is accompanied by her secretaries, Donald Boucher and Ronyl Pelletier. The boys are sporting goatees now. Veree chic!

They all embark with us on the cruise ship which is to take us on the inland tour to Fairbanks, where our 1964 Re-union is to be held.

The first sight that meets our eyes is Jonathan Chace running up and down the decks to keep in trim for the 1964 Olympics. Finally made it, huh Chace!

Mrs. Gilbert Phillips and Mrs. Hector Margeson, the former Pat Reiniche and Janet Plaud, are scrubbing the decks, thus helping their good husbands through college. Now we know it was true love!

We all go to the dining-room and are greeted in style by Captain Joseph Souza who seems to be worried by the fact that his head chef, Carole Boudreau is missing.

"Don't worry," says a cool calm voice. "If Boody isn't here, I'll take over." Why, it's Harriet Barrett! "Thank you," says Captain Souza. "Just for helping me, I'll have you moved from the brig to the crow's nest."

"What are you screaming about, Jane Peckham?" cries Janice Harwood. Jane and Janice are working their way thru college by wiping the foreheads of the stevedores, Ray Nurse, Eddie Baptiste and Frank Gonsalves who are stoking the fires in the lower regions of the ship.

Look, look! It says. "Hi, ho, everybody, this is John Brown." He's sky-writing up there. Let's see! It says, "Eat the finest French Fries at Alphonso's Portuguese Restaurant" in the fair city of Fairbanks.

After the writing had disappeared we all left for the dining-room.

Our attention is drawn to the captain's table where Nancy Giguere and Gloria Benjamin are arguing.

We listen and learn.

"Nancy, I forbid you to eat another peanut butter and jam cracker sandwich."

"I'll eat them if I want to. Gloria Benjamin, just because you're a dietician at Bellevue doesn't mean you can tell me what to eat."

We don't hear anymore, because the entertainment planned by the cruise directors, Ted Fryzel and Wally "Crew-Cut" Goulet, is about to start.

Music is in the hands of the Rhythm Kings led by Donald Ledoux. Bobby Halstead, after practicing 23 hours a day, has been hired as the feature pianist. He is a big hit!

The first act is a dance by the dainty Belle of the Yukon, our own Ollie Cruz. Following Ollie we have Betty Rooney, known to all as the "Roon". She will give her interpretation of the latest rage — the "Charleston". Swing it Betty!

Very good, very good, girls! Now we have the pleasure of listening to a duet sung by Herb Stone and Dick Sylvia doing their rendition of "My Merry Oldsmobile" which was probably sold to them by Able Alves.

The next act is a chorus of seals trained by Vaughn Fletcher. Vaughn spends his whole salary $15 a week, on fish for his seals. His assistant is Gerry Plante who sings to the seals when they get restless. His assistant for the summer is Norman Sylvia, now Department Head of Carpentry at Voke.

The next day, we leave the ship at Fairbanks. The directors keep shouting, "Don't stampede, folks, this isn't Friday at 2:30 at Voke."

As we walk toward the hotel, where we are to have our class Reunion, we pass a one room school house. A screechy voice attracts our attention. Peering within, we see the teacher is Mary Yates, no less.

"Open all the windows, children," she is saying. "It must be at least 20 below zero. Do you want me to bake in here?"

Mary loves this climate! We persuaded her to let the children go home and to come with us to the hotel.

Wait! This is a hotel? This dingy looking ice-box! Entering the so-called hotel, we gaze around at this creation.

A man comes to the desk. He looks more like a skinned seal, but I guess fur coats are the style here.

"My friends, welcome to our crumble, I mean humble home. Sign here. I am sure you will find all the best of accommodations here – heat from the sun, and water from the skies, and plenty of Godfrey's Snow Crop Orange Juice."

We realize now that this is Gordon Dodge.

A scream is heard from our right. You might know, it's Lola Houtman and Alice Pina, now dignified Air Force wives, arguing who will pay for the pecan rolls they just bought from the bakery run by Barbara Morse and Elsie Hierholcer. Along comes Ann Sowle, now married to Marcel Coderre.

It is almost time for our banquet, so we all head for the Banquet Hall led by Ed Macedo, chief bell-hop at our Yukon Plaza.

Just as we all get seated, in the door comes Don Lopes the House-detective, singing, "Who Stole The Ding Dong? Who Stole The Bell?"

Lefty Correia begins to squirm. He knows his reputation isn't very good since he made off with the moon at our Junior Prom.

Just as we start to eat the lights go out! But we don't worry. Vocational's Electricians, Harry Ward, George Souza, and Ray Finkle COME TO RESCUE.

The boys tell the manager, Tommy Cornell, to sue the Company which did the wiring. Tommy tells them Frank Considine, Manny Maciel, and Jimmy Jenkins, did it after taking a post-graduate course at Sears Roebuck.

The lights are fixed, so we begin to eat. A bell-hop, Bob Ouillette, enters with a telegram. It reads, "Wish I were there with you but my time is filled watching my money vault – it is next to Jack Benny's." It is signed Ray Theg.

"Hey," says Sheila Hurley, "I just noticed that Joan Ramos is missing. I'll bet she couldn't tear herself away from Room 36 at Vocational High School.

"Let's eat! Let's eat! I'm starving," says Vern Thomas. "Oh you contractors are always hungry," replies Al Weigel, famous architect who recently remodeled the White House.

Look at Betty Lawton, recently chosen "Mother of the Year!" She's sitting near our famous Athletic Stars, Dick Dias, now coaching the Phillies, and Jim Conners, the Golden Gloves Winner.

"Here comes Donald Grimley," says Ray Martel, "He's my new water boy at Notre Dame. Big Splash!"

"Pat! Pat Silva! Has anyone seen Pat Silva?" asks Allan Lewis. "She wants me to weld her wallet to her belt. "Oh", replies Charlotte Almeida, whose latest painting now hangs in the Louvre. "She's probably still looking for the five dollars she lost as a Freshman."

"Hey! Here comes a bus! Get a load of Hope at the wheel! Who does he think he is, anyway?"

"What are you doing here with an empty bus?" we ask. "What do you mean, empty? I had two passengers. That outstanding basketball star for the Celtics, Albie Cathcart, and that famous comedienne and Academy Award Winner, Lorraine Oliviera. Lorraine is on leave from Hollywood to referee the basketball game. She got so excited when the Celtics won that she swallowed the whistle, and poor Albie was so overcome he lost his memory.

Look at Bobby Guilbeault, "the Bobby-Sox Heart-throb," serenading Bertha Lajoie. Bertha is now manager for the Green and White Sox.

After eating, the Rhythmaires play and we all dance while the evening becomes a night to remember. After awhile we circle around two outstanding dancers, Jim Fields, and Dolores Rocha. My, doesn't Jim look handsome in his Air Force uniform and how pretty Dolores looks in her rose evening gown which, of course, she made herself! We all shout! "Bravo!" Later, we look around and see three droopy wall flowers, Dick Parkinson, Al Turner, and Ed McCoy. They have been working over-time and the money in their pockets is weighing them down.

Donald Costa is attending the banquet in his Soccer uniform; his knees are freezing from the Alaskan Climate. Stout fella!

We all leave for "the Fairbanks Ice-Capades," except Tina Enos who keeps saying to Dolores Gibbs, "No! No! I won't go without him. Arthur said he'd meet me here and I'm waiting."

"But Tina, that was ten years ago!"

"Look Gibbsy, he must have over-slept and I'll stay here till he comes."

Armand Daviault and Chester Szlegier, co-owners of the show, hire only Vocational High School graduates, so we are not surprised when the chorus turns out to be made up of Shirley Clapp, Audrey Alferes, Lorraine Boyer, Marguerite Fredette, and Micky MacLean. The lighting done by Ernie Campos is magnificent and the costumes designed by Joan Lomas are out of this world! The chorus forms a background for Joyce Sylvia and Betty Geier whose accordian playing is better than ever.

The first act over, the ice-sweepers appear. They are, Frank Cannon, William Cravo, Franky Harris, Tommy Jones, and Don Montplaiser. The boys are experts at their job from their days at Vocational. They are seeing the world — and, most important of all, meeting the beautiful gals of the Yukon.

The show over, we go to our rooms, tired but happy. It has been wonderful being in the Land of the Midnight Sun, but the next day we have to say goodby to our classmates and reluctantly start for our various homes.

The Class of 1954 scatters to the four corners of the world but our hearts will always meet in the memories of our Tenth Re-union and our wonderful years spent at Vocational High.

Lorraine Oliveira.

"I will prepare myself and my chance will come."

After his teacher told me that my fourth-grade son had saved one of his classmates from drowning at the school picnic, I asked him why he hadn't said anything about it. "Ah, gee, Ma," he stammered sheepishly, "I had to save him. I pushed him in."

To teach our son the value of money and to try to curtail some of his unnecessary purchases, we had him start keeping a detailed account of how he spent his allowance.

One day as he was laboriously writing down his accounts, he said, "You know, Mother, since I've had to write down everything I spend, I really stop and think before I buy something."

I was congratulating myself on the lesson he had learned, when he continued, "Nope, I just never buy anything that's hard to spell."

No amount of coaxing could persuade our 16 month-old son to take his medicine in any shape, form, or fashion. In utter disgust I gave up and left the room. When I came back, I stared in amazement, for there stood my son greefully opening his mouth for it.

My husband had solved the problem by mixing the medicine with orange juice, putting it into a water pistol and then shooting it into him.

Class Will

We, the members of the Senior Class of 1954 of New Bedford Vocational High School, City of New Bedford, Bristol County, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound mind and memory (there may be a question about this) do declare this to be our last will and testament.

We hereby bequeath the following:

To Mr. Mackintosh, we wish to express our deepest appreciation for his kindness and the ever pleasant manner with which he befriended us during our four years at Vocational High School.

To Miss Early, we extend our sincere thanks for the understanding and interest shown by her to each of us.

To the Faculty, we leave our unending gratitude for their efforts in making our future paths smooth and purposeful.

To our advisors, Miss Sloane, Mrs. Roderick, Mrs. Cameron, Mr. Wilson, Mr. Foley, and Mr. Harrison, we leave our sincerest thanks and appreciation for the help and guidance they so unselfishly gave us.

Patricia Reiniche — leaves the running of errands to the Electrical Department to some lucky Senior.

Armand Davioult — leaves with everything that is movable.

Abel Alves — leaves everything he forgot, for a future senior to learn.

Lola Houtman — leaves Locker 241 for some unfortunate person.

Tom Cornell — leaves his shovel to Ronnie Ouellette.

Patricia Silva — leaves the position of bowling manager to some lucky G. A. A. member.

Ronald Pelletier — leaves his book of Freshman phone numbers to anyone who would appreciate it.

Joan Lomas — leaves hoping to continue her studies at Textile.

Sheila Hurley — leaves wishing she could come back next year.

Norman Hope — leaves all the Plymouth jobs willingly.

Charlotte Almeida — leaves with Jimmy.

Robert Guilbeault — leaves his siren drivers to "Butch" Bourque.

Elizabeth Lawton — leaves waiting to marry the most wonderful boy in the world.

Kenneth Tripp – leaves the formula for his shoe shine to anyone in the Naval Reserve.

Olive Cruz – leaves Miss Sloane without wanting to.

Ted Fryzel – leaves his resting place on Maxfield Street vacant.

Louann Walker – leaves still trying to get to school on time.

Ernest Campos – leaves the privilege of massaging Mr. Wobecky's floor to some lucky Senior.

Nancy Giguere – leaves with the memories of four wonderful years at Vocational High to some lucky Freshman.

Frank Considine – just leaves.

Dolores Rocha – leaves Miss Sloane, but she'll be back to see her again.

Gerard Plante – leaves his code book to some freshman who will pay a quarter for it.

Joyce Sylvia – leaves a very lucky Junior the honor of being Chief of the Traffic Squad.

George Alfonse – leaves his shoes to the Senior with the biggest feet.

Raymond Martel – leaves his attendance record to the "Pin".

Lorraine Boyer – leaves as fast as her two feet can carry her.

Herbert Stone – leaves all the front end jobs to some unlucky Senior.

Donald Grimley – leaves Dan's minus a steady customer.

Dolores Paulino – leaves with Betty Rooney behind her.

Joseph Souza – leaves, visiting the New Bedford High School.

Jane Peckham – leaves with her '35 Oldsmobile but she says to make room, she'll be back with her '58 "Caddy."

Chester Szlegier – leaves skipping out to the store to anyone who can manage to do it.

We the members, of the Senior Class leave our best wishes to the entire faculty and student body.

In witness thereof, we set our hand, seal and signature on this twenty-third day of June in the year of our Lord Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-four.

Signed, sealed and declared by the Class of 1954 of the New Bedford Vocational High School to be its last Will and Testament.

Yearbook Staff, 1954.
